

Constitution for the Barony of Knights

Crossing

Last update 16.04.2016

Baron

Konrad von Lewenstein

Baronin

Mechthild Quattermart

Seneschal

Marcus von Stormarn

The purpose of this document is to delineate a comprehensive set of laws for the barony of Knights Crossing within the constraints of Corpora and Kingdom Law. The barony of Knights Crossing will maintain all documents in English and German version with equal content. In case of a conflict between the two documents the English Version shall be considered with higher precedence.

1. Knights Crossing

1. Knights Crossing is a branch of the Kingdom of Drachenwald, in the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. ("SCA"), which encompasses the modern postal codes a of Germany as listed in Annex 1 to this document.

2. Order of Precedence for laws

1. The By-Laws of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc or if applicable the appropriate affiliated organization as stated in any affiliation contracts with the S.C.A.Inc.
2. The Corpora of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
3. Governing and Policy Decisions of the Board of Directors of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
4. Kingdom of Drachenwald Law
5. Decisions and edicts of the Crown of Drachenwald
6. Drachenwald officer policies
7. Constitution of the barony of Knights Crossing

3. Definitions

1. Coronet: Territorial Baron and Baroness
2. Baronial Officers: Those officers required by Corpora or Kingdom Law in order to meet the requirements for a Barony and all other officers appointed to Curia
3. Local branch / Canton Officer: Appointed by a recognized canton within the barony of Knights Crossing and reporting to the equivalent greater officer of the barony.
4. Citizen: A citizen is defined as an individual who resides in the Barony of Knights Crossing, and is also a paid member of the Society for Creative Anachronism.
5. Resident: A resident is defined as an individual who resides in the Barony of Knights Crossing, who is not a paid member of the Society for Creative Anachronism.

4. Coronet

1. The title of territorial Baron or Baroness shall be awarded by the Crown upon petition by the members of the Barony of Knights Crossing.
2. Territorial Barons and Baronesses have the right to give non-armigerous awards and positions of honor.
3. Territorial Barons and Baronesses hold their Baronies in Fealty to the Crown. This fealty must be presented at Coronation. If unable to attend, the Territorial Baron and/or Baroness will provide fealty to the Crowns prior to the day scheduled for Coronation.
4. The length of a single term for Territorial Barons and Baronesses is a maximum of two years. After consulting with the members of the Barony (see §5 Baronial Polling and Investiture), the Crown may, at their discretion, ask the Territorial Baron and/or Baroness to serve another term.
5. The Baron and/or Baroness of a Territorial Barony of Drachenwald must step down from office when no longer residing in the Barony.
6. Baron and Baroness may not hold the office of Seneschal and / or Exchequer in the Barony or the Kingdom.
7. When a Barony is left without either a Baron or Baroness the procedures as described in Kingdom Law are in effect.
8. If the members of the Barony in question wish to remove a territorial Baron and/or Baroness, they must first seek arbitration through the grievance procedure outlined in Kingdom Law.

5. Baronial Polling and Investiture

1. At Drachenwald 12th Night Coronation in the year the baronial term ends a call shall be issued by the Baron and Baroness to the citizens (as defined in §3 Definitions) to consider sending in a letter of intent should they wish to be recognized as candidates. All letters of intent must be sent within 30 days after the call was issued to be considered as applicants.
2. The candidates must be over 18 years old. The title of a Baron is given to a male member of the populace and the title of the Baroness to a female member. Applicants can apply as couple or as single applicant.

3. Once all applicants are known the Seneschal has to request the addresses of all SCA members living within the Barony to start the polling process. For this the Barony should allow a window of 2 weeks, after which the actual polling will start. The polling will remain open for 20 days. During this time all citizens (as outlined under § 3 Definitions) can give their opinion on which candidate is best suited as successor.
4. The polling result is presented to the King and Queen and the crown will make the decision for succession.
5. The new Baron and Baroness will take over from the outgoing Baron and Baroness at the baronial Investiture event.
6. A baronial term begins and ends with the Investiture Event. The event should typically be held between the end of May and the end of July.

6. Duties and privileges of Baron and Baroness
